

My Life Story

SANDRA LORENZO

As a brief summary of what I have done professionally, it has been very much Hospitality related.

Running my own business has provided me with an array of organisational skills as I am constantly in contact with my clients, attending meetings, creating a living space tailored to its owner, and negotiating with suppliers. It has also made me somewhat of a perfectionist who maintains attention to the finest of details, even when working under pressure and with a deadline. it is a job I take very seriously, but have a lot of fun with.

Over the years, I have travelled for work, living in different countries such as Spain, United Kingdom, Israel and Finland, as well as visiting sites all over Europe. This has provided me with a well rounded knowledge of different lifestyles. I speak multiple languages which has proven incredibly useful in ensuring effective communication with my clients and has further allowed me to build and maintain strong relationships that still continue today with people based all over the world.

My passion is and has always been travelling. I am quite sporty and love swimming, hiking and yoga. This last one I practice as it allows me to combine the relaxation and meditation with the social side, meeting people from different nationalities and expanding my knowledge on other cultures as a result.

I am very happy to tell you more about myself and learn everything I need about you to ensure you feel comfortable in choosing me to help you plan your next travels!
